

Re: illegal dumping

Subject: Re: Illegal dumping
From: Bruce Ecker <luce@pacbell.net>
Date: 02/17/2016 10:11 AM
Re: Lorina Parker <parker@sanpedro001d.com>

Lorona,

I would appreciate it if you would provide me with e-mail contacts for the members of the FBID board so I can contact them directly.

If you are unable or unwilling to provide this information, I would appreciate it if you could let me know (in writing) exactly why.

Bruce Ecker

On Thu, Feb 11, 2016 at 11:22 AM, Bruce Ecker <luce@pacbell.net> wrote:

Lucrece,
I am looking for email addresses for the members of FBID.
You may know as as the individual that was great offense to the last Sport Night event is trying to prevent it from returning to San Pedro.
The correct person is trying to prevent Eric's dumping into providing sufficient dumpster capacity in the alley next to the Cabrillo Hotel.
In spite of the discourteous, I have provided him, he doesn't seem to think there is a problem. -- except for people that throw large items and drop them next to his dumpster.
I recently have been trying to document the large item drops and so far, the only people I have found that doing this are employees of the Hanescon group. I have observed two incidents and have been able to document one, and in both cases when I talked to the perpetrators they said the worker for Hanescon. Since they both had key access to the basement of the Cabrillo Hotel, I find that explanation very believable. It appears that Eric is using San Pedro Clean to
The first shot below is one of Eric's employees dropping off a couch (he then drove up the alley and dropped the mattress in another dumpster). I personally observed at least one of the rolls of carpet in the foreground of the same shot came out of the back of a pickup truck driven by another of Eric's employees. The other shots are indicative of how this alley has looked over the last year due to a lack of dumpster capacity and furniture and mattress "magically" appear.
Bruce Ecker
img-206.jpg

----- Forwarded Message -----
Subject: Fwd: Welcome to the Cabrillo Hotel
Date: Sun, 12 Jan 2016 17:24:20 -0800
From: eric eiskenberg <eric@pacbell.net>
To: luce@pacbell.net

Hi Ecker,
I wish it were that simple.
We have seen an increase in illegal dumping in the alley, the problem we have is that when we lock the dumpster people break the locks at night, not to mention the furniture that magically appears. But, I don't need to tell you, your stuck looking at it as are we. Our plan is to install cameras and signage to try and catch the dumpsters, until then, we do have employees checking and cleaning the alley. The bar does pay a recycler to take away their bottles, under normal circumstances the can is more than adequate, as it is emptied three times a week. We want to get a handle on this as much as you do, it's not good for anyone.
Thank You,
Eric